

HUMANITARIAN NEEDS

I N 2 0 2 6

$1B

TOTAL APPEAL

CRISES ARE BECOMING LONGER & MORE COMPLEX

61M

women & girls of reproductive age will require some form of humanitarian assistance

7.7M

will be pregnant / need care to give birth safely

80M***

people need access to gender-based violence prevention & response

117M

people displaced worldwide; around half women & girls

HUMANITARIAN NEEDS CONTINUE TO OUTPACE AVAILABLE RESOURCES, LEAVING MILLIONS AT RISK

61%

funding shortfall in UNFPA's 2025 humanitarian appeal

10M+

women, girls & adolescents losing access to essential sexual & reproductive health & gender-based violence services due to funding cuts

250+

women & girls safe spaces, gender-based violence centres, & adolescent-friendly spaces shut or projected to shut due to funding cuts

1000+

health facilities forced to close due to funding cuts

35M

PEOPLE TARGETED

42

COUNTRIES

$818.5M

Prioritized appeals

21 countries

$32M

Accelerated transition to development

5 countries

$76.4M

Regional / refugee response plans

16 countries

UNFPA CONTINUES TO DELIVER LIFE-SAVING SERVICES DESPITE ENORMOUS CONSTRAINTS

6.2M

people reached with sexual & reproductive health services between January and September 2025

2.9M

people reached with gender-based violence prevention & response services between January & September 2025

2,800

health facilities supported between January & September 2025

1,300

women & girls safe spaces supported between January & September 2025

For more information

Jennifer Miquel

Head of the External Relations Unit
UNFPA Humanitarian Response Division
miquel@unfpa.org